

A prominent Southern lady, Mrs. Blanchard, of Nashville, Tenn., tells how she was cured of backache, dizziness, painful and irregular periods by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Gratitude compels me to acknowledge the great merit of your Vegetable Compound. I have suffered for four years with irregular and painful menstruation, also dizziness, pains in the back and lower limbs, and fitful sleep. I dreaded the time to come which would only mean suffering to me.

"Better health is all I wanted, and cure if possible. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me health and happiness in a few short months. I feel like another person now. My aches and pains have left me. Life seems new and sweet to me, and everything seems pleasant and easy.

"Six bottles brought me health, and was worth more than months under the doctor's care, which really did not benefit me at all. I am satisfied there is no medicine so good for sick women as your Vegetable Compound, and I advocate it to my lady friends in need of medical help."—Mrs. B. A. BLANCHARD, 422 Broad St., Nashville, Tenn.

A Severe Case of Womb Trouble Cured in Philadelphia.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been cured of severe female troubles by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was nearly ready to give up, but seeing your advertisement I purchased one bottle of your medicine, and it did me so much good that I purchased another, and the result was so satisfactory that I bought six more bottles, and am now feeling like a new woman. I shall never be without it. I hope that my testimonial will convince women that your Vegetable Compound is the greatest medicine in the world for falling of the womb or any other female complaints."—Mrs. MAY COPE, 2660 Birch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Had Learned to Save.
Father—Halloa, where did you get all those toys?
Son—I bought 'em with the money you gave me.
Father—But I gave you that money to teach you how to save.
Son—Yes, pa; I kept it for three weeks, until I learned all about saving, and now I am learning how to shop.—Stray Stories.

Sarcasm.
"Why, John," said Subbubs, returning from a month's vacation, "the lawn is all dried up."
Can't understand it, sir," replied the lazy caretaker; "I worked hard on it all the time you was gone."
"Ah! You shouldn't work so hard. You probably ran the lawn mower over it so vigorously that you scorched it."

Couldn't Touch Him.

The Golfer—Are you laughing at me, boy, because I missed the ball again.

The Caddy—No, I was just thinkin' what a cinch it would be to be your bad little boy.—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Sizing Him Up.

"Pon my honor!" complained Hi Tragerdy, with an air of great disgust, "that railroad is positively atrocious. It took me thirty-two hours to come from Chicago."

"What are you talking about?" demanded Lowe Comerdy. "That's mighty good time for a freight train."

Laid it to the Sermon.

Rip Van Winkle awakened rather flustered from his twenty years' sleep.

"Yes—yes," he muttered hastily, "the sermon was very fine.

Perceiving, however, that he was not in church in time, he tottered down the hill.

Some Relief in the Situation.

"Don't you sometimes feel discouraged about our political system?"

"No," answered Farmer Cornfossel. "I kind o' like it. It's a great relief to have a man come around shakin' your hand an' tellin' you stories without tryin' to sell you books or lightnin' rods."

How He Got Even.

She had just worked the "I'll-be-a-sister-to-you" degree on him.

"Excuse me, Miss Chillington," he said, "but as I am already well supplied with elder sisters, would you mind being a grandmother to me instead?"

Proof Positive.

Soques—"I must have been unusually drunk yesterday."

Hoques—"Why do you think so?"

Soques—"I found a receipted bill from my tailor in my pocket this morning."

A Suggestion.

Miss Passay—"Well, what do you think of her? She had the face to say I'd never see 30 again."

Miss Pepprey—"Perhaps it wasn't her face that prompted her to say that."

A Bachelor's Guess.

"There is a boy in London who can understand three different languages."

"What are they, baby talk, grandma talk, and English?"

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address F. J. CHENK & CO., Toledo, O.
